

Living Your Life With Passion!

Once again we're offering the most popular course in our curriculum. During this seminar we've watched students come into personal power they didn't even know they had. We've experienced negative emotions and habit patterns melting like snow in sunshine and transforming into happiness and clarity. And we've all gained tremendous insight into our unique Life Purpose and found ways to live more fully.

A unique, four week exploration, taught by Shelley McQuerter and Willow Tipton, allowing students to develop their own personal formulas of Bach flower essences that will transform emotional blocks for greater spiritual connection. Ideal for students and practitioners, who would like to gain a richer understanding of how these medicines work at the deepest levels, effecting consciousness itself. We have compiled outstanding notebooks, rarely offered to the layperson, and will include fabulously fun, creative exercises with new questionnaires and interviewing techniques.
